Knowledge MS Step....

Instrument name	Teachers Tertulia (gatherings)
Brief Description	La Tertulia is a very peculiar learning process applied to adult learners. In La Tertulia (that can be translated with gatherings) the participants have the opportunity to demonstrate their interest in the pedagogic innovations motivated by exchanging the ideas with colleagues <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- La Tertulia is not a simple discussion among peers, it is defined by some relevant rules and characteristics: a) the program targets adult learners that must be consider as peers, b) the innovations are openly discussed and all critics are welcomed c) the process is based on dialogic learning. In this way, La Tertulia and its approach to learning challenges many assumptions held in the field of teachers exchange of ideas and transfer of knowledge</li></ul>
Steps or tips of its application	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- The application of every dialogic methodology requires the creation of a common thematic ground, where the topic must be defined clearly and in advance</li><li>- The groups have to be created involving any school actors (not just teachers). Even though sometimes having just one category can facilitate the discussion</li><li>- A written report must be produced</li><li>- The conclusion must be available for all the school staff</li></ul>
